Dear Parents/Carers

Friday 25th September is MacMillan Coffee Morning Day. This year, we will again be raising money for a very worthy cause.

This year, we are holding a cake sale after school on Friday 25th September from 3:15pm until 3:45pm in the dinner hall. It would be lovely to see as many of you as possible: please come along and support us in raising money for Macmillan Cancer Support.

Grab a cake for 50p.

CAKE DONATIONS ARE NEEDED!

If you are a budding baker and would like to bake a few cakes for the event that would be great. Equally, shop bought cakes are welcome too. If you do bake a cake, please send a list of the ingredients in with the cake.

Please do not bake / buy any cakes that contain nuts.

Please send cake donations in on Wednesday 23rd / Thursday 24th September and hand them to staff on school doors in the morning to be safely stored.

BAKE SALE

To support this event, every child in school will be able to buy a cake at breaktime on Friday 25th September too. Cakes are 50p each.

Adjustments and plans will be put in place to support pupils with allergies during the morning bake sale. If you have any questions about this please do speak with your child's class teacher.

Yours sincerely , Miss Palmer
